

What your dues DO for you

Benefits vary based on membership category and are continually re-evaluated to ensure the best value is provided.

- ✓ Association with one of America's longest standing and most prestigious engineering societies
- ✓ Provide access to forums and conferences with top subject matter experts
- ✓ Join fellow engineers in exclusive tours of our region's top manufacturing, research, and test facilities
- ✓ Expand your professional network by connecting you with northeast Ohio's engineering and technical community
- ✓ Connects you to community and business decision makers
- ✓ Opportunity to broaden your knowledge and professionalism by earning board approved Continuing Professional Development (CPD) hours
- ✓ Top priority for member only or exclusive events
- ✓ Give your employees full CES individual membership benefits and promote your organization as a leader in engineering
- ✓ Receive prominent recognition and special benefits
- ✓ Encourage students to study STEM and pursue careers in science and engineering
- ✓ Provides opportunities to mentor young professionals
- ✓ Advance your career and professional skills by engaging with leading engineering experts and our region's diverse engineering and technical community
- ✓ Develop leadership skills throughout your career
- ✓ Support the engineering profession and help build our region's future as an engineering center of excellence
- ✓ Help develop the next generation of engineers and scientists by supporting CES community and educational outreach activities
- ✓ Become more engaged with your community
- ✓ Learn. Connect. Lead.

Value of Membership

www.cesnet.org